April is Financial Literacy Month

Get Money Smart!

Patriot Bank is hosting a lively and informative panel discussion about the basics of money management. Since nearly half of all Americans lack these important skills, this will surely provide the tools you need to prepare for your financial success.

Wednesday, April 26th
11am-1pm
Housatonic Community College
Beacon Hall Events Center
900 Lafayette Blvd., Bridgeport

Our panel of special matter experts includes:

Dr. Paul Broadie, II,
President, Housatonic Community College

Rick Muskus, Jr.
President, Patriot Bank, N.A.

Additional HCC panelists:
Dr. Michael Brown, Dean of Academic Affairs,*
Bernard Pasierb, Instructor of Business Administration and Director of HCC Small Business/Entrepreneurship Center,*
Charles Mayrick, Assistant Professor of Business and Economics,*
Pam Pirog (Moderator), Professor of Entrepreneurship and Accounting and special guest Beverly Hoppie, Director of Education and Community Engagement at Bridgeport Neighborhood Trust/Home Ownership Academy*

A free lunch will be provided – Reserve your seat now!

financialliteracy@bankpatriot.com

You will learn about:

- Maintaining a college budget, including food, housing and living expenses
- Establishing and building credit
- Saving and investing on a limited budget
- Paying back student loans
- How to become a millionaire

PatriotBank℠
bankpatriot.com

About Patriot Bank, N.A.
Patriot Bank, N.A. is headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut and provides consumer and commercial banking services to individuals, government and nonprofit entities, small- and medium-sized businesses and professionals. Patriot Bank currently operates 10 full-service branches, 8 in Connecticut and 2 in New York. Patriot Bank was founded in 1994.

© 2017 Patriot Bank, N.A. Member FDIC | Equal Housing Lender