The HCC Department of Public Safety has both security and police officers. 1) Security Officers are part of a law enforcement/public safety agency responsible for the enforcement of campus rules and regulations and local, state and federal laws; 2) Police Officers are trained at the Connecticut Police Academy and derive their powers of arrest from the Commissioner of Public Safety. The department also consists of state Building and Grounds Patrol Officers and well-trained contract security associates. The Mission of the Department of Public Safety: to provide the campus community with proactive, professional security services. As an integral link in the learning environment, the Department of Public Safety responds to the changing needs of the college by creating a safe learning and working environment for students and staff.

Call Security for an Emergency: At any time in an emergency, contact the Dept. of Public Safety (Security). Dial  on any campus phone to connect with Security for an immediate (emergency) response.

Call Security for Non-emergency: Lafayette Hall, Room A105, 203-332-5025
Beacon Hall, Room 110, 203-332-5040

Emergency Lockdown

Lockdown is very important to follow! The College may ‘lockdown’ for safety reasons:

1. “Lock Down” is announced over the college’s intercom system.
2. Strobe Lights may also flash to alert people
3. Alert Emails and Text Messages will be sent to the HCC Community. (Only to those signed up to receive these alerts)

These are just a few of the procedures that should be followed in a “lock down” emergency. For other procedures and any questions regarding lock down, please direct them to the Housatonic Community College Security Officers.

Evacuation of the Building

Everyone must leave the building immediately by the most direct route when the alarm is sounded, the strobe lights go off, and/or an announcement is made.

Evacuation Route: Evacuation route signs are placed inside the classrooms, near the door.

Personal Belongings go with YOU: If it is safe to do so, please be sure to take all of your personal belongings with you. Please also be sure to use your best judgment.

Cannot use the stairs: There are designated areas of rescue marked in Beacon Hall and Lafayette Hall: In Beacon Hall, they are clearly marked on the second and third floors. There is a blue light intercom in the area. In Lafayette Hall, it is the landing of the stairwells and there is a dedicated intercom available.

Move Away from ALL Campus Buildings (including the Courtyard)

Move across the street on Lafayette Boulevard, State Street, or Broad Street.

Do not stand on the walkway from BH to the garage

Do not stand on walkway from LH to the garage

Do not remain in the garage

Do not stand in the Courtyard

Returning to the Building: Campus security staff will direct you to re-enter when the building is cleared.

College Closing, Delay and Early Dismissal

With the potential for emergencies and inclement weather delayed starts, early dismissals and closings are a possibility. Occasionally, classes have to be cancelled because of extreme weather conditions or other emergencies. Below are different options for you to find out about delays and/or closings:

- HCC website: www.housatonic.edu; closings or delays will be posted on the top of our home page.
- MyCommnet Alerts: Sign up to receive alerts for closings or delays. Alerts may be sent via email, phone call, and/or text message.
- Call 203-332-5000 and select #3 for the weather/emergency advisories.
- Listen to local radio stations or check the radio station’s website: WICC-AM 660, WEZN-FM 99.9, WELI-AM 960, and/or WEBE-FM 107.9.
- Watch your local television news stations and/or check their website - WTNH Channel 8, Channel 12 and WSFB Channel 3.

It is best to assume that there will be classes unless you hear a specific announcement that the College is closed or delayed.

Jonathan Law High School (JLHS) – Off Site Campus

Class cancellations

- When classes are cancelled by the college, they are also cancelled at the offsite campus, JLHS.
- If Milford Public School System decides to cancel classes due to weather conditions (either having an early dismissal or closed completely), HCC will not have classes that evening at Jonathan Law High School. This means that even if classes are still being held at the main campus in Bridgeport, HCC classes being held at JLHS will be cancelled. For detailed information, refer to the college’s website. Please be advised that local radio and TV stations do not currently allow us to put separate messages for the main campus and the offsite campus (JLHS).

Ways to Stay Engaged during Course Cancellations

Discuss with your professors what you can do during these times off:

- Ask your professor ways you can study at home when there are late starts, early dismissals or closings
• Ask your professor about ways to help you review the course material.
• Ask your professor about setting up group review sessions.
• Ask your professor about how to set up tutoring or tutoring groups through the Academic Support Center (ASC).
• Ask your classmates for their phone numbers, emails, and set up your own study groups.
• Look at your syllabus to see what will be due when you return to class.
• Re-read the chapters and go over the chapter review questions again
• If your class has software built-in, you can access it from home.

Ways to Alleviate Stress during Course Cancellations

• Study at home when there are cancellations, delays, or closings.
• Review your notes and make index cards to study for a test.
• Chat with your classmates on Blackboard, and review for a test together.
• Review your class syllabus to stay up-to-date, and mark your calendar with action steps.
• Re-read your chapters and review the chapters questions again.
• If the class has software built-in, access your schoolwork from home.
• Review your course’s Blackboard PowerPoint slides and/or lecture videos.

Continuing Student Advising:

Continuing students should make every effort to contact their GPA in their programs to discuss suggested courses for the upcoming semesters. Building a relationship with Professors is one of the main keys to success while in college.

Continuing students should:

- Take a look at their DegreeWorks Evaluation. Access Degreeworks by signing into my.commnet.edu. Look to the lower left side of the page and click on the Housatonic Community College hyperlink.
- Under the circumstance that students are unsuccessful with connecting with their faculty advisor, they can schedule an advising appointment through the online Request for Remote Advising Form.

DegreeWorks

Website: https://www.housatonic.edu/academics/degree-work

An advising tool for students, faculty, and advisors:
- Log-in MyCommNet first, then select DegreeWorks.

Veteran HCC students are eligible for Veterans Administration (VA) education benefits. These students must complete and submit an HCC Admission Application and must enroll in a degree or certificate program. In addition, these students must contact the College Veterans (VA) Representative.

Reservists and members of the National Guard are eligible for the Montgomery GI Bill (Chapter 1606) must contact the College VA representative and supply the Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE) form in order to file for benefits. Connecticut tuition waiver may apply to some veterans.
New students must have their military and civilian education evaluated by the College. Since Veterans Administration benefits cover only courses which do not replicate previously gained credit, students receiving VA benefits are advised to submit their separation (DD214) and/or educational transcripts for an evaluation of Military Learning and/or transfer credits.

Continued eligibility for benefits is contingent upon the student complying with College regulations and conformance with program of study requirements. Only courses required for degree or certificate completion are covered by VA benefit programs. Additional courses selected by the student become the financial responsibility of the student.

Please contact the VA Representative for help, support and to answer VA related questions.

Transfer Students

Website: https://www.housatonic.edu/academics/transferring

Transfer students are students who transferred to HCC from another college or university. HCC will accept transfer courses with a grade of C-minus or better to be applied towards an HCC degree or certificate program. Transfer credits are accepted based on if the courses are college-level and can be applied toward your chosen program. Students must request an official transcript from every college/university they attended and completed courses. The official transcripts should be emailed to transfer@housatonic.edu. Your transcripts will need to be officially evaluated and accepted for credit. This will happen when the college receives your official transcripts.

For questions, email HC-Transfer@housatonic.edu

HCC College Transcript

Website: https://www.housatonic.edu/transcript-information

Students attending HCC may print their own unofficial transcript via MyCommNet, or they may request an official transcript be sent to another college or university; this request can be done electronically or by visiting the Registrar’s Office.

WHAT IS FERPA?

FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, as amended), also known as the Buckley Amendment, was passed by Congress in 1974. It grants three specific rights to a post-secondary student:

- To inspect and review the education records that the institution is keeping on the student within 45 days of a request.
- To seek amendment to the student’s education records and in certain cases append a statement to the record.
- To control the disclosure of a student’s educational records to others except when the student provides consent, or as required or permitted by CSCU BOR policy or bylaw.

Unlike at the primary and secondary level, these rights belong to the post-secondary student, and not to the student’s parents or legal guardians, regardless of the student’s age. Moreover, the rights continue to exist after the student’s graduation and expire only upon either the destruction of the relevant records or the student’s death. If students feel their rights have been violated, they have the right to file a complaint with the Family Policy Compliance Office of the U.S. Department of Education, however, FERPA does not create personal rights that an individual may enforce.

FERPA & VIRTUAL LEARNING - FAQs

What constitutes an “education record” under FERPA?

Under FERPA, “education records” are, with certain exceptions, those records, files, documents and other materials that are:

- Directly related to a student; and
- Maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting on behalf of the educational agency or institution, and are not specifically excluded under the six categories of exceptions set out in 20 USC 1232g(a)(4)(B).

What is “Personally Identifiable Information” under FERPA?

“Personally identifiable information” or “PII” refers to any data element contained in an education record that, if disclosed alone or together with another data element, would allow a reasonable person to reasonably identify the eligible student who is the education record’s subject. FERPA prohibits disclosure without prior consent of education records and PII from an education record. PII includes, but is not limited to:

a. The student’s name;
b. The name of the student’s parent or other family members;
c. The address of the student or student’s family;
d. A personal identifier, such as the student’s social security number, student number, or biometric record;
e. Other indirect identifiers, such as the student’s date of birth, place of birth, and mother’s maiden name;
f. Other information that, alone or in combination, is linked or linkable to a specific student that would allow a reasonable person in the institution’s community, who does not have personal knowledge of the relevant circumstances, to identify the student with reasonable certainty; or
g. Information requested by a person who the educational agency or institution reasonably believes knows the identity of the student to whom the education record relates.

Note: CSCU institutions have increasingly been collecting contextual or transactional data as part of their operations, often referred to as “metadata” or “aggregated data.” Metadata or aggregated data refer to information that provides meaning and context to other data being collected; for example, information about how long a particular student took to perform an online task has more meaning if the user knows the date and time when the student completed the activity, how many attempts the student made, and how long the student’s mouse hovered over an item (potentially indicating indecision). Metadata or aggregated data that have been stripped of all direct and indirect identifiers are not considered protected information under FERPA because they are not PII.

Do classroom recordings constitute FERPA education records?

• Maybe. Video, photo or audio recordings of virtual classes qualify as “education records” only if they directly relate to a student and are maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting on their behalf. FERPA’s non-disclosure provisions may still apply to class recordings even if they do not qualify as “education records,” if the recording contains PII from student education records:
  o If the video recording made by the institution directly relates to a student or contains student PII, disclosure of the recording outside the class requires written consent from all affected students, or a de-identification or redaction of all relevant student PII prior to disclosure. If the video or audio recording only identifies the faculty member, and does not directly relate to any student or contain student PII, the recording is not a FERPA education record, but is the intellectual property of CSCU or Housatonic Community College.
  o A recording of a virtual class should not generally be considered an education record for a specific student and should not be maintained in a specific student’s records. If, however, the recording is maintained in a specific student’s record (perhaps, for example, as a record of misconduct engaged by the student during the virtual class), then it must be treated as a FERPA education record.

For more information regarding recordings under FERPA, see U.S. Department of Education’s FAQs.

I’m a faculty member working from home and would like to have a conference with a student and my spouse is at home in the same room. Is it alright if I conduct the conference?

Yes, as long as the faculty:
• Does not disclose PII from the student’s education record in hearing of the faculty’s spouse during the conversation; or
• Moves away from the spouse to discuss PII from the student’s education records so that the spouse does not overhear the discussion; or
• Obtains prior consent in writing (electronic) from the eligible student for the potential disclosure of PII from the student’s education records to the faculty’s spouse.

What is “Directory Information” and how does it apply in a virtual classroom?

FERPA identifies a limited number of data elements contained in students’ education records that may be designated as “directory information,” which is the sort of information that would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Educational agencies or institutions may disclose directory information after publishing a FERPA policy detailing what information constitutes directory information. See BOR FERPA Notice and Directory Information Policy for the types of information CSCU BOR has designated as directory information.

The directory information exception permits certain PII from education records which an educational agency or institution has designated as directory information to be disclosed during classroom instruction to students who are enrolled in and attending a class, including a virtual class.

• The directory information exception may not be used by the student to opt out of disclosures of a student’s name, identifier, or institutional email address in a class in which the student is enrolled. 34 CFR §99.37(c).

Can non-students observe or participate in a virtual class?

• Just like on-ground classes, non-students should not attend virtual classes. As a best practice, CSCU institutions should discourage non-students from observing virtual classrooms in the event that PII from a student’s education record is, in fact, disclosed in such virtual classrooms.

• However, there are scenarios where it is important to have a non-student participate or observe the class. The two most common examples are guest speakers who are experts in a topic or prospective students that would like to experience the classroom environment. When a non-student will be present in the virtual classroom, please give the following guidance to that guest:
  o Do not ask anyone for any personally identifiable information (PII) during the virtual class; and o The guest is not allowed to record or disseminate the class content, including to other platforms or websites such as YouTube, Course Hero, Facebook, Twitter, etc.

Who owns the intellectual property rights of the class recordings?

• Generally, faculty and students retain ownership rights in their scholarly work, unless an exception or a contractual agreement applies. However, CSCU owns the copyright in the recordings the institution makes of faculty courses and presentations. Although CSCU owns the class recordings, it generally does not own the faculty member’s scholarly work content contained within the recording, unless an exception applies.

If I am recording my classes, what should I put in my syllabi?

- Please insert the following language in the class syllabi:
  “Class sessions may be recorded and uploaded to Blackboard and shall be used for the purpose of completing course assignments only. Unless prior permission is obtained or reasonable accommodation granted, students are not permitted to record classes.
  Students participating in the virtual classroom should refrain from sharing personally identifiable information from education records. Additionally, U.S. Copyright Law, Connecticut State law, or relevant collective bargaining agreements protect the intellectual property of the faculty member, CSCU or Housatonic Community College, which may include, but is not limited to: lectures, demonstrations, or performances. Any redistribution of recordings without the faculty’s or the institution’s prior approval constitutes academic misconduct and may result in disciplinary sanctions. CSCU or Housatonic Community College reserves the right to delete the class recordings pursuant to CT State law retention requirements after the period of instruction is over.”

- Also announce at the beginning of each recording that the class session will be recorded and uploaded to Blackboard.

Can faculty record classes and post the recording of the virtual classes on Blackboard for students enrolled in the class who are unable to attend?

- Yes, as long as the faculty member is careful not to disclose student PII (unless the faculty obtained prior student consent) from student education records, FERPA does not prohibit faculty or the institution from making a recording of the virtual class available to students enrolled in the class. The recording should only be shared through a platform that is accessible to the student class members.

Can the faculty show or share recordings from last year’s class in the current class?

- If the recording contains information directly related to specific students or contains student PII, this situation must be treated as if the video or audio recordings were being shown to or shared with a third-party audience, which requires the affected students to sign FERPA consents, or if the students’ consent is not feasible or granted, to de-identify or redact any student PII prior to disclosure.
- Additionally, if recorded lectures or lessons are disseminated to a third-party audience, faculty intending to disseminate the recording(s) need to ensure appropriate copyright permissions or licenses are secured.

May students record virtual classes?

- No, not without the consent of the faculty member or the institution’s Dean of Academic & Student Affairs, or designee. Students who would like to record classes as a reasonable accommodation should be referred to the institution’s Office of Student Accessibility/Disability Services.

May students share the class recordings outside of the student’s course instruction?

- No, a student has no right to use the institution’s recordings outside of the purpose of completing the course requirements. Generally, CSCU owns class recordings and the student needs prior written permission from the faculty or the Dean of Academic & Student Affairs, or designee to share the class recording outside of the student’s course instruction. Faculty are encouraged to put students on notice in their syllabi that classroom recordings are owned by the institution and course content is owned by the faculty.

Does FERPA require institutions to maintain or store video or audio recordings of classes?

- No, FERPA does not obligate educational agencies or institutions to maintain or store these types of records, and CSCU or Housatonic Community College may delete the video or audio recordings after the period of instruction is over. Likewise, FERPA does not require educational agencies or institutions to notify a student prior to destruction of the students’ education records. However, CT State record retention regulations for higher education institutions may apply. There is no video or audio recording category for higher education institutions within the CT State record retention regulations, but for other CT State agencies, the video recording retention requirements are recording date + 30 days. Faculty may state in the course syllabi that CSCU or Housatonic Community College reserves the right to delete class video or audio recordings pursuant to CT State law retention requirements after the period of instruction is over.

What if a student objects to being recorded?

- If a student objects to being recorded in a virtual classroom, an acceptable compromise is for the faculty member to de-identify or redact the student’s image or portion of the student’s class participation.

What if a student declines to sign a FERPA consent?

- Students cannot be compelled to give consent, but faculty may redact the student out of the recording or de-identify the student even if the student refuses to consent.

If I require students to show their face during a LRON course so I can make sure they are participating or not cheating during an exam, what do I do if a student refuses to turn on their camera?

- If it is for a legitimate academic purpose, faculty can ask students to have their cameras turned on. However, there may be scenarios where a student may receive an accommodation from this requirement. For example, the student is a domestic abuse survivor, under the care of Department of Children and Families (DCF), has severe anxiety, or other circumstances warranting a reasonable accommodation or exception. If a student wishes to receive an accommodation from having their camera turned on, refer them to the College’s Office of Student Accessibility/Disability Services. If a student cannot afford a webcam, refer to the College’s point of contact for the Student Emergency Fund.

Class Roster

Every professor receives a class roster, which lists all students’ names who are enrolled in the course. Every student attending the class must be on the class roster. If you are attending a class and your name is NOT on the class roster, immediately visit the Registrar’s Office, Lafayette Hall, Room L113. Faculty are allowed to ask students to leave class. Students cannot remain in a class if their name is not on the roster.

Students in Good Financial Standing

Students in ‘good financial standing’ are those who have no outstanding financial obligations. In order to earn credit in a course, students are expected to be in good financial standing with the college.

Syllabus

All professors are required to provide their students with a course syllabus which has important information for the student. It will provide information such as classroom policies, description of the course, what textbook(s) are being used, the topics to be covered, the grading policy, any required presentations, papers, projects, homework/assignments, and due. It will also provide dates of quizzes, tests, mid-terms and when finals are scheduled. Please see your professor if you have any questions regarding the student syllabus.

Cell Phones & Electronic Devices (iPad, tablets, laptops)

Cell phones, tablets and other electronic devices must be turned off or muted before class begins. Each professor may set their own student cell phone & electronic policy. Electronic devices are to be used in class only for class related activities at the discretion of the Professor. When there are extenuating circumstances that require students to be available by phone, text or pager, students should inform the instructor prior to class, so that together they can arrive at an agreement concerning the device. Please see your course syllabus for more information or talk to your professor if you have questions.

Code of Students’ Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct

Student Code of Conduct

The mission of Housatonic Community College is to empower all individuals to develop to their full potential as lifelong learners, through a collaborative, learner-centered, technology-rich and stimulating educational environment. As a knowledgeable and dedicated faculty and staff, we inspire students to contribute responsibly to our dynamic regional and global society. This Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct outlines the provisions and expectations related to how students may participate responsibly in the College community. The Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct (hereafter “The Code”) governs the conduct, policies, and procedures for students and takes precedence over all other procedures. We are committed to safeguarding the diverse learning environment of Housatonic Community College by upholding its standards for student conduct and reserve the right to determine the time, place, and use of its facilities and grounds.

Report (any) Student related Incidents to:

• Public Safety, Lafayette Hall, Room A127 or Beacon Hall, Room 110
• Robin L. Avant, Interim Dean of Students ravant@hcc.commnet.edu | Beacon Hall BH278, 203-332.5061

Some examples of behaviors that violate the Student Code of Conduct. Such behaviors may lead to disciplinary action:

• Academic misconduct

  Includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism and all forms of cheating. Plagiarism is defined as the submission of work by a student for academic credit as one’s own work of authorship which contains work of another author without appropriate attribution. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (i) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests or examinations; (ii) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems or carrying out other assignments; (iii) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff; and (iv) engaging in any other behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus.

• Academic Dishonesty

  All students are expected to do their own work on assignments, laboratory exercises, quizzes, tests, examinations and any other academic work. Cheating and/or plagiarizing in any form is viewed by the faculty, the students and the administration as a most serious offense. See The Board of Regents Student Code of Conduct, Part D in Appendix I.

  Academic dishonesty can result in your receiving an “F” grade on the paper or exam in question and/or an “F” grade in the course. “F” penalties are invoked by faculty members. Academic dishonesty can result in suspension from college or expulsion from college. The last two penalties can only be invoked through the Academic Dean. Your instructor will explain exactly what is meant by academic dishonesty and plagiarism and what the penalties are at the beginning of the semester. If you have any question on these issues, consult with the instructor prior to undertaking the action or submitting the paper.

• Anti–Plagiarism Software

  Anti-plagiarism detection software products assist faculty and students in preventing and detecting plagiarism. Professors may utilize such software in order to check the originality of the academic work students submit in a course by comparing submitted papers to those contained in its database consisting of submitted papers and other sources. Anti-plagiarism detection software returns an “originality report” for each submission. The report is limited in scope to merely identifying passages that are not original to the author of the submitted work and which may include correctly cited quotations and information. Professors and students must carefully review such reports. No adverse action may be taken by a professor with respect to a student solely on the basis of an originality report which indicates the potential for plagiarism. You may be asked to submit your academic papers and other creative work containing personally identifiable information for originality reporting. By doing so, your work along with personally identifiable information will be retained in the product database and may be subsequently reported out containing your personally identifiable information not only to your professor, but also to professors of other universities and colleges within Connecticut State Colleges and Universities (CSCU) as part of subsequent originality reports. You may decline to submit your work for originality reporting. If so, you must be provided an alternative method in which to submit your work. However, your professor, after removing your personally identifying information, may nonetheless submit limited portions of your academic work for originality reporting. Students must pay their bills to the college on time and in full. Students who do not do so are in financial default and will not earn credit for coursework done while in default. Failure to maintain good financial standing does not oblige the college to grant credit for a course, regardless of the student’s work or attendance in a course.

- Theft of property or services, or damage to, defacement or destruction of, or tampering with, real or personal property
- Unauthorized or improper possession, use, removal, tampering or disabling of fire and/or safety equipment and warning devices

Student Conduct Subject to Disciplinary Action

The College will take disciplinary action against a student or student organization when it is required by law to do so, or when the nature of the conduct:

- Impairs College-related activities or affairs of another member of the College community
- Creates a risk of harm to a member or members of the College community

Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault

Domestic Violence
Can happen to anyone….it knows no gender, class, religion, education or economic status. Knowledge and understanding about domestic violence are important and effective tools students can call upon to help a victim stay safe. Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim. It can be by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common or have no children in common, or by a person who is cohabitating with the victim; in an intimate relationship with the victim, or a spouse. A victim of domestic violence can be any adult or youth, age and gender does not exclude a person from being a victim.

Sexual Assault
A form of sex discrimination. It is illegal under both state and federal law. Sexual harassment is prohibited by the CSCU Non-Discrimination Policy. In accordance with the Board policy sexual harassment may be described as: Any unwelcome sexual advance or request for sexual favors, or any conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or education, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment or academic decisions affecting the individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s academic or work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or educational environment.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Policy: Housatonic Community College is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, this includes student, faculty or staff; whether on ground or virtual.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will be a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, the Center for Family Justice has a 24-hour Domestic Violence hotline: 888-774-2900; and a 24-hour Sexual Assault hotline: 888-999-5545. Faculty Advisors

Students are assigned Faculty Advisor to meet with regularly for the remainder of their college stay up until they graduate. Your faculty advisor is important because they are familiar with your chosen degree or certificate program, and they can also provide some information about jobs, salary, and degree requirements in that career field.

Students are encouraged to meet with their faculty advisor early in the registration period. When you receive your mid-term grades, is the time you should be meeting with your Advisor to plan your classes and register for next semester. Many faculty advisors are not on campus during the summer or winter intersession.

Not sure who your faculty advisor is?
1. Sign into my.CommNet.edu with your banner ID.
2. Click on the DegreeWorks box in the lower left corner your Faculty Advisor’s name will be in the upper right-hand corner of your DegreeWorks worksheet. Use the Faculty/Staff directory on the HCC website to find office hours, locations, phone numbers and/or email addresses.

Struggling in My Classes
If any academic issues or difficulty arise, your first step is to speak with your professor or other faculty and staff. If you still need support or guidance, meet with your Guided Pathway Advisor, counseling, faculty advisor, or email Dawn Olson at dolson@housatonic.edu to schedule an appointment with your Guided Pathway Advisor. HCC Faculty and staff are a wealth of knowledge and are there to offer you the support and help you need. If they are unable to help, they will refer you to someone who can.

Website: https://www.housatonic.edu/u-pass

The college and the Department of Transportation have partnered to offer students a UPASS to take public transportations by train or bus, for FREE! Students must have a valid student ID to show along with their pass when using the transportation systems. Students can use the unlimited semester pass to travel within the state on rail or bus including CTtransit and CTfastrak, but excluding Amtrak.

The UPASS is available to both full and part time credit undergraduate students at the colleges and universities taking at least one class per semester on campus. Each student is charged $20 per semester for the pass. The DOT has set this special rate for our students only. The transportation fee is considered an institutional charge so financial aid may be applied. If you lose the UPASS, there is a $75 fee for a replacement UPASS.

The Department of Transportation will deliver the passes to each school by August 1 and December 15 for distribution by the Business Office prior to the start of the term. There will be enough passes for all students but students are not obligated to pick up or use the card. Each school will keep a log of all passes disseminated with the student name and pass number to be submitted with their transfer of funds to System Office.

More information and how to get a UPASS: Visit the Bursar’s Office, Lafayette Hall, Room L123; OR call the Bursar’s Office at 203-332-5260 to schedule an appointment

IT Support

If you need any IT support, your first step is to go to the Services Portal GO TO SERVICE PORTAL

NetID (for students)

Website: https://www.housatonic.edu/mycommnet-and-netid

The NetID (Username) will allow students to access computers at any Connecticut Community College. COMPUTERS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE WITHOUT YOUR Net ID!

Net ID: The NetID is composed of the following two items

1. Your Student Banner ID Number (without the @ sign), with @student.commnet.edu.
2. For Example: 00123456@student.commnet.edu

What is my initial NetID password? The initial password for all new NetIDs will be based on a combination of personal information (birth date and social security number). Specifically, the following three items will make up the initial password:

1. 1st three characters of birth month (with first letter capitalized). For example: Dec
2. Ampersand character symbol &
3. Last 4 digits of Social Security Number. For example: 2400
4. For Example: Dec&2400

Log-In to Computer for First Time

1. First follow directions under NETID (for students)
2. Enter your NetID (Username)
3. Enter your NetID (Password)
4. The first time you log on, you will be prompted to change this temporary password to a more permanent personal password.

Create a NetID Personal Password

The following requirements must be followed when selecting a NetID password (follow any applicable CSCU Policy or Standard):

- Password must be at least eight characters.
- Password must be complex and difficult to guess. A password must contain characters from three of the four categories:
  1. Uppercase characters (A through Z)
  2. Lowercase characters (a through z)
  3. Numeric digits (0 through 9)
  4. Special characters (for example: !, $, #)
- Password must not contain all or part of the user’s NetID account name.
- Password must differ from previous passwords.
- Password is forced to change every 90 days, but users have the ability to change them sooner.

The following are a few suggestions for creating a secure NetID password:

- Randomly pick alternating uppercase and lowercase vowels and consonants. Add in a digit or two; (e.g., eBiC92oD)
- Combine three and four character words with at least one digit between them. This will create passwords that can be easily remembered but difficult to crack (e.g., Egg123Salad).
- Randomly pick a book, poem, or song. Select a phrase from the work and use the first character of each word in the phrase as your password. Add in at least one digit, or change some of the existing letters to digits or special characters. For example, the phrase "Four score and seven years ago our forefathers..." might become this password: 4s&7yaof

If the password you select does not meet the requirements specified above, you will get the following error message and be asked to try again:

Your password must be at least 8 characters; cannot repeat any of your previous 24 passwords; must contain capitals, numerals or punctuation; and cannot contain your account or full name. Please choose a different password. Type a password which meets these requirements in both text boxes.
